

词汇进阶版 Lesson 2 – Growing up

-----Relationships; families; early learning

Phrase	Meaning	Example
nuclear family	小家庭	I live in a nuclear family with my parents and a brother.
extended family	大家庭	My grandparents live with us – we're an extended family.
close-knit family	关系紧密的家庭	We're a close-knit family who spend weekends together.
only child	独生子女	Being an only child can be lonely sometimes.
generation gap	代沟	There's often a generation gap between parents and children.
get along with	相处融洽	I get along well with my classmates.
fall out with	闹矛盾	I fell out with my friend over a misunderstanding.
make up with	和好	We made up after a week.
keep in touch	保持联系	I still keep in touch with my best friend from school.
drift apart	渐行渐远	We used to be close, but we've drifted apart recently.
upbringing	成长环境	I had a very traditional upbringing.
discipline	纪律	Discipline is important for children.
well-behaved	懂事的	She was a well-behaved child.
spoiled	被宠坏的	Some children are spoiled by their grandparents.
role model	榜样	Parents should set a good example as role models.
preschool nursery school	/ 幼儿园	I went to a preschool near my home.
interactive	互动式学习	Interactive learning keeps children engaged.

Phrase	Meaning	Example
learning
cognitive development	认知发展	Toys can promote children's cognitive development.
foster creativity	培养创造力	Art classes foster creativity in young children.
nurture curiosity	激发好奇心	Good teachers nurture curiosity about the world.